

Felixstowe Christian Action Against Poverty and Debt Celebration and Thanksgiving Weekend

When: 27th and 28th April 2019

Where: Trinity Methodist Church Felixstowe

Saturday 27th April

In the morning from 10:00 through to 12:30 teaching on Church connecting with community. There will be two sessions. In the first session Dr Gareth Jones will be sharing how God works through His church to heal and restore the world, and in the second he will be presenting how we as God's messengers can share the Good News in a way that's exciting and culturally relevant, making the best use of the limited resources we may have.

In the afternoon, from 1:30 to 3:30pm, there will be an opportunity to meet and talk with Gareth and share questions, ideas, concerns, thoughts about the direction of Christian work in which you're involved.

Sunday 28th April 3:00pm Celebration and Thanksgiving Service. Dr Gareth Jones will speak on how poverty affects and wounds people and how we as the church can be a source of restoration and healing.

Dr Gareth Jones For over 25 years Gareth has been involved in leading and managing social projects in the private, public, and charitable sectors. This has included pioneering Christians Against Poverty in New Zealand, providing operations support to over thirteen charities in the North of England and running an inner-city church. For over eight years he lived as a resident in shared-living communities that welcomed and supported some of the most marginalised and disadvantaged in society, and as an academic his research centred upon how the resources of the Christian faith can be used to guide the transformation of society.

Please contact Mike Peck to reserve your place for the Saturday morning sessions and/or to register your interest in attending the Saturday afternoon session.

All are welcome to any of these events.
